

Maidenhead Neighbourhood Plan

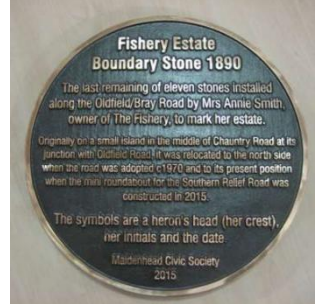

Appendix 3

Commemorative Plaques

SITES WITH COMMEMORATIVE PLAQUES

This section enumerates the various sites around the town which have already been given recognition in the form of a commemorative plaque.

Location	Person/event	Scheme & unveiling date	Photo
Chapel Arches Bridge, Chapel Arches, High Street, Maidenhead SL6 1QJ	This blue plaque was erected to commemorate a Chapel founded in 1269 that stood close to the bridge of 'Maydenhith.'	Royal Borough of Windsor & Maidenhead blue plaque Unveiled 30 July 1996
Kidwells Park Marlow Road, Maidenhead SL6 7DX	J.D.M. Pearce is commemorated as the 5 times Mayor of Maidenhead between 1850-1890 and local benefactor. In July 1890 he presented Kidwells park as a deed of gift to the town.	Royal Borough of Windsor & Maidenhead blue plaque Unveiled 6 March 1997
Maidenhead United Football Club, York Road, Maidenhead SL6 1SF	Acknowledged by FA and FIFA as the oldest senior football ground in the world to be continuously used by the same club. Maidenhead FC played their first game in 1871. They took part in the first FA Cup, the oldest football competition in the world.	Royal Borough of Windsor & Maidenhead blue plaque Unveiled 13 October 2012

Pavement outside The Bear, 8-10 High Street, Maidenhead SL6 1QJ	Plaque marks the site of the chapel of SS Andrew & Mary Magdalene (abbreviated to St Mary's): the outline of the chapel is marked with brass studs.	Maidenhead Civic Society Unveiled 1997
Plaque on the wall of the National Westminster Bank, 66 - 68 High Street, Maidenhead, SL6 1QA	Commemorating the site where Charles I met his children in July 1647. He was beheaded in January 1649.	Maidenhead & District Civic Society plaque Unveiling date not known
Plaque located at the junction of Oldfield Road with Chantry Road, Maidenhead, SL6 1TS	Plaque commemorating one of the boundary stones marking the Fishery Estate	Maidenhead Civic Society Unveiled 2015
Two plaques located at the entrances to Guards Club Park, Maidenhead, SL6 8DN	Commemorating the site of the Brigade of Guards Boat Club established in 1865	Maidenhead Civic Society Unveiled 1989	